

Date: April 26, 2019

To: Distribution List

From: Jay Rowan
 Senior Environmental Scientist Supervisor-Hatcheries
 North Central Region

Subject: Planned release of brood year 2018 Fall Run Chinook salmon into San Pablo Bay at the Mare Island Net Pen site.

On May 3 and 4, 2019, the Department of Fish and Wildlife will release approximately 501,730 brood year 2018 Fall Run Chinook salmon from Feather River Hatchery into the San Pablo Bay at the Mare Island Net Pen site. This release will include 25% marked (adipose fin clip) and Coded Wire Tagged (CWT) fish (Table 1). For questions concerning this release, please contact Jay Rowan (916) 358-2883.

Table 1 – Planned release summary of Feather River Hatchery Fall Run Chinook salmon.

| Date | Location | CWT Code or mark | Fish/lb. | Fork length (mm) | With Mark | Total Fish |
|-------------|-----------------|-------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------|------------------|-------------------|
| 5/3/2019    | Mare Island     | AD clip/06-19-78    | 60              | 74                      | 123,457          | 501,730           |
| 5/4/2019    | Mare Island     | Ad clip/06-19-78    | 60              | 74                      | 123,456          | 501,730           |